Shall a Constitutional amendment providing that when cities, towns and counties borrow money for construction or maintenance of public buildings, streets and roads, the constitutional limitations otherwise existing on their power to borrow shall be altered by extending the maximum term permitted for such debts from 25 to 30 years, by reducing the vote margin needed, in some cases, to authorize such debts from 3/5's to a simple majority of electors, and by permitting such debts to be incurred in amounts exceeding the generally applicable ceiling on debts of cities, towns and counties, which ceiling limits total debt to no more than 5% of the assessed value of the property in the city, town or county and to no more than the amount of income and revenue for the city, town or county during the year the money is borrowed, be adopted by the people?
